DETAILED ACTION

1. The restriction requirement in paper No. 6 had been withdrawn. Claims 29-32 will be reconsidered for examination. However, claims 25-28 as being drawn to non elected second species as shown in figure 11 (page 3, applicant's election of species) are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b). Applicant is reminded that claims 25-28 are being non elected inventions should be cancelled.
2. Note that Claims 13-19 and claim 20-24 are distinct inventions, related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination; however restriction is not being required at this time as no serious burden upon the Examiner is present.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 13-24 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The scope of claims 1-24 is not clear. The claims appear to be directed to press block. However, the claims contain limitations directed to the functioning structural outside of a press block and define press block relative to its structural, for example "-- associated with a respective one of the terminal --" (claim 13, lines 6); "—a front face receiving the terminal—"(claim 20, line 3); "—wherein the terminal extend through the openings—" (claim 20, line 7), etc. Therefore, it is not clear if applicant is solely relying on the press block for patentability or if applicant is relying on the combination of the press block and the outside elements (terminal) for patentability.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

6. Claims 13, 17, 19, 29-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Applicant Admitted Prior Art (AAPA). AAPA discloses a press block comprising:

7. Claims 13-18, 20-24, 29-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Potters (US 6,095,826).

Potters discloses a press block comprising: A generally planar base having thickness substantially less than a length of the terminal (fig 5); A plurality of discrete opening 44 through the base, each opening associated with a respective one of the terminals (fig 2, 5, col. 2, lines 46-67, col. 3, lines 1-30, col. 3, lines 42-55).

Art Unit: 3729

Regarding to claims 14, 15, 21, 22, Potters discloses the press block form moldable material (col. 2, lines 60-67, col. 3, lines 1-5). Note that material such as moldable thermoplastic taught by Potters broadly readable as composite of a polymer and a fine grain metal of the instant invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

10. Claims 14-16, 20, 21-24, 29-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant Admitted Prior Art (AAPA).

AAPA as advanced above meet all the claimed invention limitation except for the material structural of the press block, such as metal injection molded are old and well known. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice since the applicant has not disclosed that the use of metal injection molded solves any stated problems or is for any particular purposed and it appears that the invention would perform equally well with the use of conventional moldable thermoplastic as taught by prior art.
